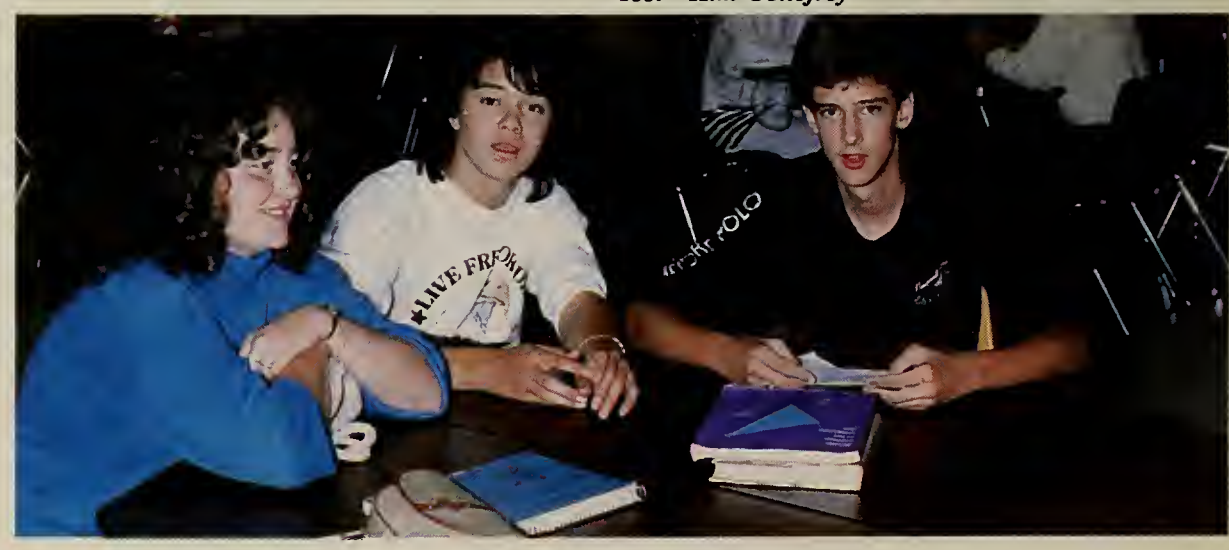
"Suzanne, aren't you a little overdressed for this football game?" A. Paul

Mark Carew gets lessons from Monika Gonzalez on how to apply makeup.

"I'll freshen up quick . . . no one will see!" Kim Conefrey

The Tom Cruise wanna-be's . . . Eric Tucker, Rodney Sutcliffe, and Todd Graham



What Are YOU looking at? S. McGill, R. Brower, M. Johnson

Erika Pitt and Amy Matola hamming it up!

Go freshmen!

Chris Boone making his own play-dough recipe!

G. Doherty and P. Doherty trying to figure out what K. McCasland is singing.

Donna Puccio "Hey look, my face turned green, yellow, and black!"

G. Hunsacker, H. MacAskil, and A. Turner flirting with the photographer.

While the rest of the Junior Class watches the pep rally D. Watts and K. Wachtel watch the football players.

B. Thomas trying to steal the ball away from V. Vilano.

"Look, Lorene — a shooting star!" B. Oram and J. Holland

Jill Blake pondering on whether to mold or not to mold.

"I have no idea what I'm suppose to do." Jennifer MacRae

Freshmen girls getting into their first pep rally.

B. Monahan takes the game seriously while J. Gabbard gets too excited.

Karen Cooke "Wait, I'm now ready for this picture."

Smiling seniors get psyched for Homecoming.

Our heroes do their stuff at the Homecoming game vs. Franklin.

Moni Ely feels lighthearted as she flip-flops for the pep rally.

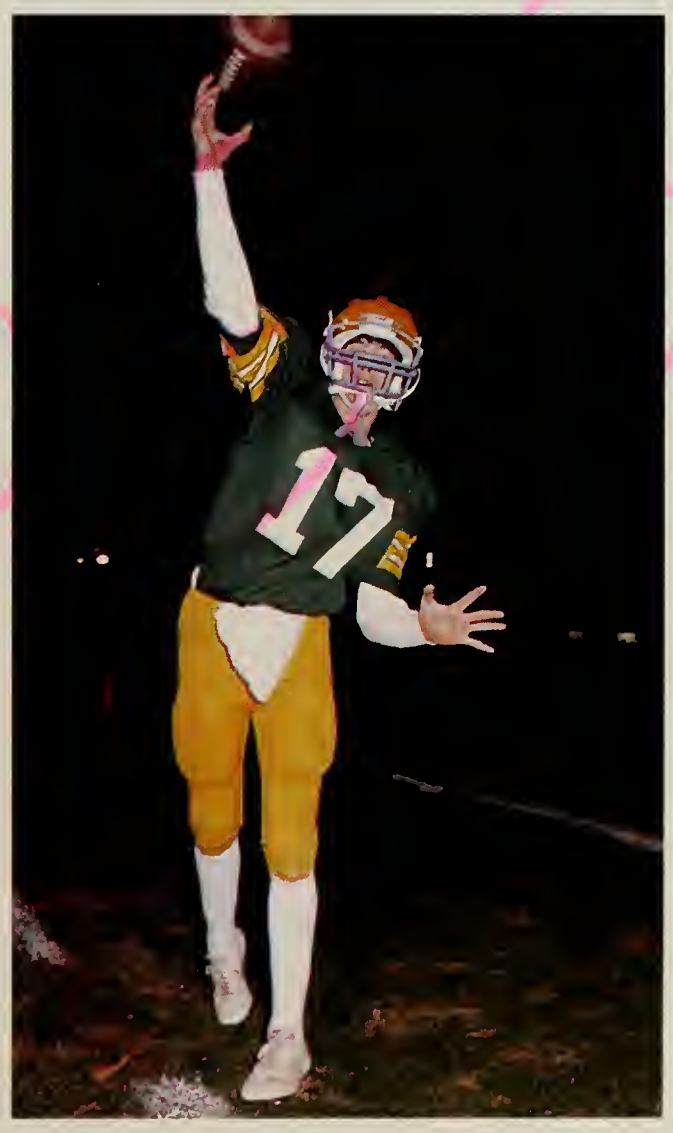
Proud freshmen pose with their masterpiece.

Our Homecoming Court — princess Deirdre Monahan, queen Wendy Grote, and princess Suzanne Masterson.

"Everyone knows dead hornets don't fly!" Scott Hamwey and his rap-dog buddies help out during spirit week.



Jim Weir — the famous number 17 himself!

Football fans J. Destefano, D. Daley, G. Foster, and J. Morganelli watch the big game.

In September 1985, the Class of 1989 entered King Philip High under the leadership of Cathy Paulson — President, Suzanne Masterson — Vice President, Christine Kelley — Secretary, and Deirdre Monahan — Treasurer.

Under the guidance of our class advisor, Mr. Platt, we constructed our first Homecoming Float at Suzanne Masterson's house. Although we did not win the competition, we had a lot of fun building the float and were very proud of the spirit demonstrated by our class.

In March 1986, our Freshman-Sophomore Semi-Formal, "Heaven," was held at The Coachman's Lodge in Bellingham. Christine Kelley and Suzanne Masterson were the belles of the ball, capturing the title of Freshman princesses.

We returned in September 1986 as sophomores led by Cathy Paulson — President, Mark Tobichuk — Vice President, Jackie DePlacido — Secretary, and Deirdre Monahan — Treasurer. Mr. Fitzsimmons was brave enough to volunteer as our class advisor.

We increased our treasury with a dance and a flower bulb sale which was a huge success.

The Semi-Formal, "Faithfully," was held at Demetri's Restaurant in Walpole on March 27, 1987. Tammy Bassett represented our class as Queen and was complimented quite beautifully by her court, Wendy Grote and Suzanne Masterson.

Our Junior year was very successful. Once again Mr. Fitzsimmon's took us under his wing as class advisor. We were led by Mark Tobichuk — President, Jamie Faulkner — Vice President, Jackie DiPlacido — Secretary, and Deirdre Monahan — Treasurer.

Homecoming week was a busy one for all. We built our float at Wendy Grote's house. Although our float did not come in first place, we did seize the Spirit Week Trophy.

Senior Class Officers, Top to Bottom. Mark Tobichuk, President, Jamie Faulkner, Vice President, Jackie DiPlacido, Secretary, and Deirdre Monahan, Treasurer.

Our Junior-Senior Prom, "Time of My Life," was held on May 20, 1988 at Demetri's in Walpole. Kristen Sutcliffe and Deirdre Monahan represented our class as princesses. It was an enjoyable evening for all who attended.

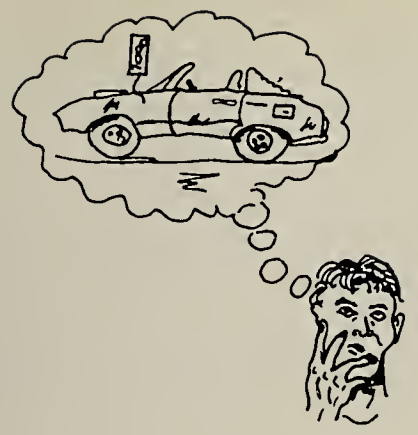
In September 1988 we returned — finally — as Seniors! Our returning class officers Mark Tobichuk, Jamie Faulkner, Jackie DiPlacido, and Deirdre Monahan with the help of Mr. Fitzsimmons, led the class through a wonderful senior year.

Once again, we captured the Spirit Week Trophy. The football team defeated Mansfield — our Homecoming rivals. Wendy Grote represented our class as Homecoming Queen with her court Suzanne Masterson and Deirdre Monahan. Wendy also captured the Thanksgiving Queen title. David Gala — our MVP, led the Football team to victory over Franklin's Panthers.

On May 12, 1989, we held our Senior Prom at the Sheraton-Tara in Milford. Our final dance was a huge success.

On Sunday, June 4th, 1989, we received our diplomas. Our years at King Philip High are over, but as we each go our separate ways, we will never forget the friendships and memories built in the halls of KP! Good Luck Class of '89!

Deirdre Monahan



MONEY

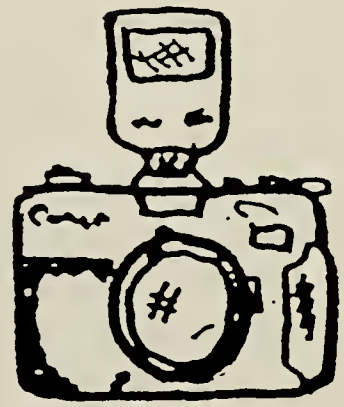
Many people believe that money is an extremely vital part of society and it influences their lives greatly. To find out how the class of 1989 feels about the importance of money, the Chieftain yearbook staff conducted a survey concerning money and the role it plays for them.

When asked what role money plays in society as a whole today, more than half of the seniors responded by saying that it is important, but that other things are equally important. About 37% of the seniors said that we cannot possibly live without the security of money. On the other hand, another 39% said that money is of very little importance in society.

Another question proposed to the class of 1989 was what money represents to them. In response, about 45% answered that it provides them a means to buy and therefore find pleasure in possessions. Then 20% claimed that money gives them freedom and independence while 27% responded that money means a sense of security to them.

The question of what they would spend money on first if given the chance, most of the class of 1989 at 32% said a new car. Next came the group at 23% who said a college education. Then about 72% commented on other things ranging from savings and vacations to clothes and stereo equipment, etc. The remaining 3% of the seniors said they would spend it on — what else? skiing and just plain having fun — of course!

When asked what is the most important concern of their age group today, 27% of the seniors answered money, which clearly shows how much the class of 1989 values money. Another 23% said they cherish their girlfriend or boyfriend more than anything else. Then 21% considered free time to be the most important to them. 13% thought their health was an important concern while the remaining 13% answered with intellectual development, social justice, or something else.



When asked what aspect would attract them to a particular profession, 44% of the seniors said that their job would have to be interesting to them — there is no way they are going to get stuck in a profession they don't like for thirty or more years. Another 37% thought that they would most elect a job that pays well. The remaining 18% of them said they would choose a job with a lot of free time, a stable job, or one with a lot of responsibility.

When asked whether they would open a bank account for their future children, an overwhelming 70% of the seniors responded yes — they certainly are planning ahead! 7% answered no while the remaining 23% said they didn't know now — how can one expect the seniors to be thinking ahead that far when half of them don't even know what college they are going to yet!

SURVEY

The question pertaining to whether they will teach their children to spend or to save their money, the majority of the seniors at 77% replied that they would definitely preach "save" — hopefully they are practicing what they preach if they want to afford those sky-high college tuitions! Then only 5% of them said they would let their children spend their money while the other 18% did not have an answer in either favor.

When questioned about what social issues concern them most today, over half of the seniors at 57% responded with AIDS, the serious disease which threatens the entire country. Next was the group of 39% who answered with divorce. The remainder of the class of 1989 answered that nuclear war and death are their biggest concerns.

Class Prophecy

Dear Mr. Fitzsimmons,

Can you believe this? Here we are in the year 2009 and I've just been inaugurated as the forty-sixth President of the United States. (Republican, of course!) Imagine that! Did you ever think that I, Derek Berry, would someday be President of the United States? And guess who my Vice President is? Laura Finn! The first lady, Carrie Costa, my chief-of-staff Robert Garrity and I will be flown by my personal pilots Torgun Lovely and Alan Robinson to a summit meeting with the Premiere of Russia, Jen Trainor. My personal surgeon, Sarah Mick, will be tagging along, just in case . . . I just appointed James Damato as the youngest Supreme Court Justice of the United States and Amy Toll as the ambassador to Jamaica! I have also received word that Heather MacAskill was just appointed District Attorney of Massachusetts. And how could I forget Linda Howard, our new interior decorator of the White House . . . What a crew!

In campaigning for the presidency, of course I had to take a quick shuttle, designed by Linda Operach and Linda Nelson, to the moon. I visited Lunar City, created by NASA engineer Dana Vernon and world reknown architect, Jen Bolyn, assisted by Laura Schaefer, Amy Turner, and Andrea Moses. The attendant on the shuttle was Kristine Callahan, who made it an enjoyable flight. After making a speech at the lunar Space Center, Carrie wanted to do a little shopping at Macy's on the Moon, co-owned by Cathy Intrieri, who is also a famous actress. In the department store, we ran into Michelle Joyce, the incredibly wealthy jet-setter; Phil Hulbig, who was lavishing money on his model girlfriend; Derrick Miller, trying to find something to spend his millions on; Steve Lefoll, who just drove his Porsche through the front display window and is being arrested by Brenda Howell; Paul Darling, who was autographing his seventh consecutive platinum album; Amy Daley and Marlo Hall, both spending some of their late husband's millions; multi-millionaire Michelle Killelea, looking for a gold-plated field-hockey stick for her sister Nancy, the goalie for the Inter-Global field hockey team; and Kelley Mannering, the already retired multi-billionaire who was just taking a break from her mansion on Martha's Vineyard. Tough life!!

On our tour of the personnel offices, we saw Ginger Hunsacker, a top executive of a prestigious fashion company, and Kevin Ray, president of the CVS corporation, negotiating a deal with VIP Kristen Bourne. What a busy place!

Starving, we began to look for a place to dine, and what better place than Vikki Sandstrom's night club? Our waitress was Joyce Holt, and our bartenders were Mike Curtis and Glen Clow. For entertainment, Jen Moore was the opening act for major heartthrob Toni Boni. We barely recognized him! We saw posters in the nightclub advertising next week's performers, featuring the duet of Daryl Howard and Belinda Carlisle. Matt Kurdirka will be playing drums for the back-up band, Aerosmith. Performing later in the week will be Motley Crue and Megadeath, accompanied by their biggest fans, Lesley Reed and Gina Rowell. Oh, I almost forgot! Sheryl Ronhock, just previously a struggling musician in L.A. is now a rising star. I believe Eric Kearns, the manager of Jam Recordings, helped her along by "pulling a few strings." Comedian Jeff Blood, who has just replaced Biff Henderson on Late Night with David Letterman, will make a surprise appearance. Well, needless to say, Carrie and I were exhausted and we retired to Kim Conefrey and Paul Griep's fabulously chic hotel.

In the morning we were off, back to the good ol' USA. On the second shuttle, we tuned into the news and caught the sportscast of the day. The Washington Redskins, with coach Jerry Morganelli, were winning the Super Bowl. Dave Gala had just broken the all time rushing record held by Walter Payton. Aaron Nicodemus and Eric Tucker were broadcasting the game live. The Tour de France was still underway with John Packer and Dan Giovanoni leading the pack. Olympic skiers James Arsenault and Jeff Gale were busy training at Paul Paulino's ski resort. Scott Hamway, the coach of the Iowa Hawkeyes, just endorsed Joe Hoiland's sporting goods store, located next to Rob Pfishner's Orange Julius in the Walpole Mall. I heard that Dallas

Mavericks' forward, Billy Oram, was mobbed by his fans on his return to Boston. Chris Olszewski was the winner in the P.G.A., and is now playing golf at Sean Kelly's private country club. Later in the broadcast, they interviewed Lyle Smith, who has just received a nomination for membership into the Baseball Hall of Fame.

Also in sports, Paul Carlow of the Boston Bruins is considered one of the best players in the NHL. Jeff McCarthy is the athletic trainer for the New England Patriots. Peter Boucher is still coaching the King Philip cross-country team while also training for the US distance team to compete in the 2012 Olympic Games. Meanwhile, Sue O'Connor is having a great time skiing the Swiss Alps with her family and friends. Tim Gamelin, another skiing enthusiast, has been hitting the slopes in Vale, Colorado. The last I heard, Noah Hoffenberg was attempting to conquer Mount Everest on skis . . . is he still alive? I think Terri Johnson managed to save him. As you probably know, Terri is one of the world's leading medical authorities. Her colleague, Sandra Pennachio, has retired to one of her many homes throughout the world after discovering the cure for AIDS. And to think it all started with the Pre-med club at King Philip!

Jen Smith owns a fitness center which is conveniently located near the world's most popular ski resort. Lisa Haines works as a physical therapist there, but she can often be found watching field hockey games with Scott Clarke. Another popular fitness center is David Dix's gym in downtown Los Angeles. Also on the California coast is Moira Gallagher's beach resort, a hot-spot for the celebrities.

Oops! Time for Carrie's favorite talk-show hosted by Kiki Thomas. Who was she interviewing today? Her best friend from King Philip — Kristen Sutcliffe about her academy award! After Kristen is Chris Pungitore, owner of a famous advertising company, showing off his Ferrari Tesstarossa convertible. Next is Pam Johnson, famous gossip columnist on the moon, and then Jen Spink, unmarried and still looking for the perfect boyfriend.

WHOA!!! What was that?! We almost hit a hot-air balloon . . . and I believe Cheryl Mullen was in it. (She is spending a few months of her retirement traveling the world via hot air balloon. Jeez, watch where you are going Cheryl!!)

Ah, finally . . . earth sweet earth. We landed in Hawaii to continue my campaign trail. Guess who handed us our lei as we got off the shuttle — Rachel Unger. She has been traveling the world looking for the true meaning of life and peace. Guess she found it in Hawaii!! Off we went to the beaches. (A president's job is never done!) As we made our way through the hot sand, we ran into Matt Capadano on vacation with his family. We also saw Gary Kramer, who is pondering retirement from his business, Jim Weir with his wife and kids, Wendy Grote, Susan Masterson, who is still arguing with Paul, Rebecca Sharp, who is vacationing with her husband, a pro-football player, and Tammy Baker, laying out to catch some rays. When we finally reached the platform on which I was to give a speech, we realized why hundreds of people were all standing on the beach. Not to hear me, but to watch the surfers in the Pipeline. There goes Jen Wisnewsi . . . what a wave. Rob Newton is also out in those waves somewhere, scuba diving for treasure, . . . and there is Peter Megna sitting on the beach buying up property and counting his millions. Finally, I gave my speech!

Back to the mainland! Well, Mr. Fitzsimmons, I had to go visit my family and see how they were doing. I stopped by my brother Doug's house in Pennsylvania to see how he, Barbara Bredvik, their four children, and their black panther were doing. Many people from King Philip are now happily married. Deirdre Monahan is married to a male model and they have two children. Lori Dunbar is living with her multi-millionare husband in a house by the ocean with her horses. Jeff Carr, who is presently traveling the world with his wife, occasionally stops to look for parts for his '68 Chevelle. Many other people are also happy, including Anne Fecteau, who is working on her writing career as well as raising her children; Elizabeth Gallagher; Lisa Peavey; and Sandi Schmirler, who is married with two kids and works in her own office making tons of money. Alison Romsey is rich, married and has two children. Dana Van Fleet, a successful contractor, is very happy with his wife, and Peter O'Connell is living on the Cape with his wife and three kids. Kelley Verna is living a great life with her husband and children. Jessica Abernathy is married with three kids and is looking for a bigger and better diamond ring and Aaron Paul and Carolyn

Hayes, a couple from King Philip, are now living in a beach house on the coast of Florida. Erika Pitt, aside from having a husband and two children of her own, runs a daycare center called "Sunshine U." Sandy Lynch is happily married to Jim with twin boys living in a Newport estate, and Karin Rogaris and her husband are running a business together out in California. Daryl Boone is very happy with his wife who is an actress, and both Kathy Stearns and Kim St. Amand are having a wonderful time living with their husbands in the Breakers Mansion in Newport. Lynn Thompson, famous for her discoveries of unknown animals in Australia, also found her husband there . . . and Derek Ellenberger is married to Tracy and is still pumping gas at Russ's. Jeff Carlson is living in Beverly Hills looking for his third wife; Greg Roche is still avenging the death of Bruce Lee and married a cute little karate instructor; Jonathan Day, married to Heather and living in Arizona, is the president of Radio Shack; John Accord is a fire-fighter back in good ol' Wrentham with his wife and family; Dave Oliver is living with his girlfriend in Norway, screening japanimation films in his half-owned movie theater in Oslo's downtown shopping district; Kim MacMurray is presently married to a blonde-haired, blue-eyed doctor with six kids and is working with special-needs children; and Shannon Faulkner is well-known for her work with Helen Keller students who "can't see that far." Deidre Sullivan has recently been summoned by Italy to repaint the artwork within the Sistine Chapel along with Andy Mills. What a group of alumni!

Speaking of foreign countries, many people from the class of '89 are living all over the world. Liz Bender is living in a damp castle in London with her best friend making movies. Karen Cooke is writing her third Pulitzer Prize winning novel while relaxing on her privately owned beach in Australia. Amy Matola is living in Greece and Dawn Ross is living in England trying to learn how to correctly pronounce her name. Mike Goddard is spending all his money in Europe, Tom Spadoni is traveling the world, and Rob Truitt is flying P-51 Mustangs at airshows across Europe. Gregg Sandberg is designing cars for the Ford Motor Company, and Chris Janes is cruising around the world on the yacht he bought from Donald Trump. Majorie Nelson is a famous interior designer for wealthy European clientele and Monica Gonzales is still meeting new people and learning their customs.

The next stop on my campaign trail was California. Guess who I met living in an oceanside estate in southern California — David Oldread. And what timing! He was in the middle of partying with alumni from the class of '89. Jason Gabbard, John Burhart, Mark Tobichuck, Tom Carter and Glen Pisani had all taken time off from working at BADD BROS. to come to Dave's party. Dan Lombardi, Todd Grahm, Kristen Murray, Steve Noonan, Laura Stewart and Kim Ritchie (all looking for something worthwhile to do) also found Dave's party. Rich Hall, Mark Carew, and Tom Daily drove cross-country just to come to the party. (after attending Dan Costello's and Ray Brower's graduation finally! at King Philip— Dave invited Tammy Bassett to his party, but she was busy lying on the beach in Seaside Heights, New Jersey. Soon the crowd spilled over into Tom Casey's mansion, which was designed by himself. Tracy Hamilton's bakery and Todd Howard's catering service provided all of the food. Everyone in Southern California was listening to Jay Johnson and Jen Barrett in the morning on Rob Gorman's radio station.

Besides partying, some of our classmates have opened businesses in California. Wayne Bishop has a landscaping business just outside of Los Angeles. Sheryl Smith is a psychologist and Geronimo Garza has a carpentry business there. Mark Wood's Leaching Field Construction Co. is located right next to Dan Sanford's farm. Unfortunately, I had to leave for more campaigning on the East coast. But this time I decided to drive!

In Las Vegas, I found Donna Puccio taking down notes for her favorite shrink, Mark Weaver. Next to Mark's office was Tom Hugh's and Jen Baily's Casino. Inside the casino, Phil Johnson and Meredith B. were wasting all of their hard earned money. Eric Callahan was working down the street in Jamie Woalloff's McDonalds.

When traveling through Colorado, I learned that the Coors Brewery had just been bought out by Ed Beutler, Steven Cloutier, Tammy Scott and Travis Knight.

Stopping to rest in Kansas, I watched an on-sight filming of a new movie: The revised Wizard of Oz. Bob Butler was portraying the cowardly lion, Chris Lewicki was the scarecrow, Debra Schwartz was the tinwoman, and Tina Labine was the wicked witch. And guess who had the star role as Dorothy! Jen Gaines.

My next stop was Indianapolis, Indiana. I was just in time for the Indianapolis 500. Some of the favorites expected to win were Scott Galerani, Jamie Ohlson with co-driver Tim Gallager, Shayne Gardner in her yellow corvette, Randy Levesque in his Lambohrgini Countache and Mike Galindo. Near the end of the race, it looked like a close contest between James Panettiere in his Toyota and Jesse Darling, who had just received his license. But just before the finish line, Debbie Kuta pulled ahead in her "Blue Bomber" to win the race. Sean Cady and Mike Levesque were in the winner's circle to hand Debbie her prize money. Jeremy Farling, Dave Puccio, and Keith Wooding were mechanics at the speedway, and Matt Larson was pumping gas for the racers.

Traveling through Ohio, I met Jodi Funk happily raising a family in Brecksville. Phil Page was in Pittsburg, PA "doing anything but homework." I finally arrived in New York City. At first I didn't recognize the bag-lady who asked me for some money, but then I realized it was Janice Bigelow. Doing a little window shopping, I saw Sheri Durrick "washing that grey right out of her hair" at a hair salon in downtown Manhatten. When I got on the subway to go to the airport, I found myself sharing a car with Dave Sikut, Mike Lennox and Brian Leeman. They were all sleeping on the NYC subway! From New York, I took a plane to Logan Airport, where I met Eric Keene and Jodie Mangor who had become a Hari Krishnas. My campaign then took a swing north to New Hampshire, where I found Glen Barrows and Scott Bettinger snowmobiling during the day and partying at night. Not far away, Kelley Cronin, Michelle Bernardo and Mike MacRae were all "soaking up the rays" on the front porch of their log cabin in Maine. Kelley Verna is also living somewhere up north in the wilderness.

After working long and hard on my campaign, I felt I needed a vacation. I went to Jamaica, now owned by Tara Kiley, where I met Christine Kelley, James Devine and Heather Vincint at my hotel. Stephanie Ross and Carolyn Bobola were wandering aimlessly on the beaches with Kevin and Dan. Julie Grazado, Simone Derosiers, and Cherie Cleveland were all living in their beach house in Jamaica. Just off the coast, Rebecca Garcia was floating on a raft. A short distance away, there was almost a collision between Alyssa Horton's yacht and Scott Clark's yacht. Lee Britinall was enjoying the view from Scott's yacht. Also in the Caribbean was Angela DeCristoforo, a state senator from Alaska, taking a break on a cruise.

Well now I'm home in the White House, writing this letter and preparing for my summit meeting tomorrow. By the way, have you ever heard what happened to Ed Brasz? No one has seen him since our graduation parties back in 1989. If you hear anything about him, please call me.

Ooops . . . I've go to go now! I don't want to miss the "all-new" Brady Bunch on television starring Gayle Tasker as Alice, Cheryl McMorrow as Carol, Jackie Diplacido as Marcia, Meg Muir as Jan, Jill Blake as Cindy, Jamie Faulkner as Mike, Ken Salisbury as Greg, Sean Ross as Bobby, and Mark Johnson as Peter.

Sincerely,

Derek Berry

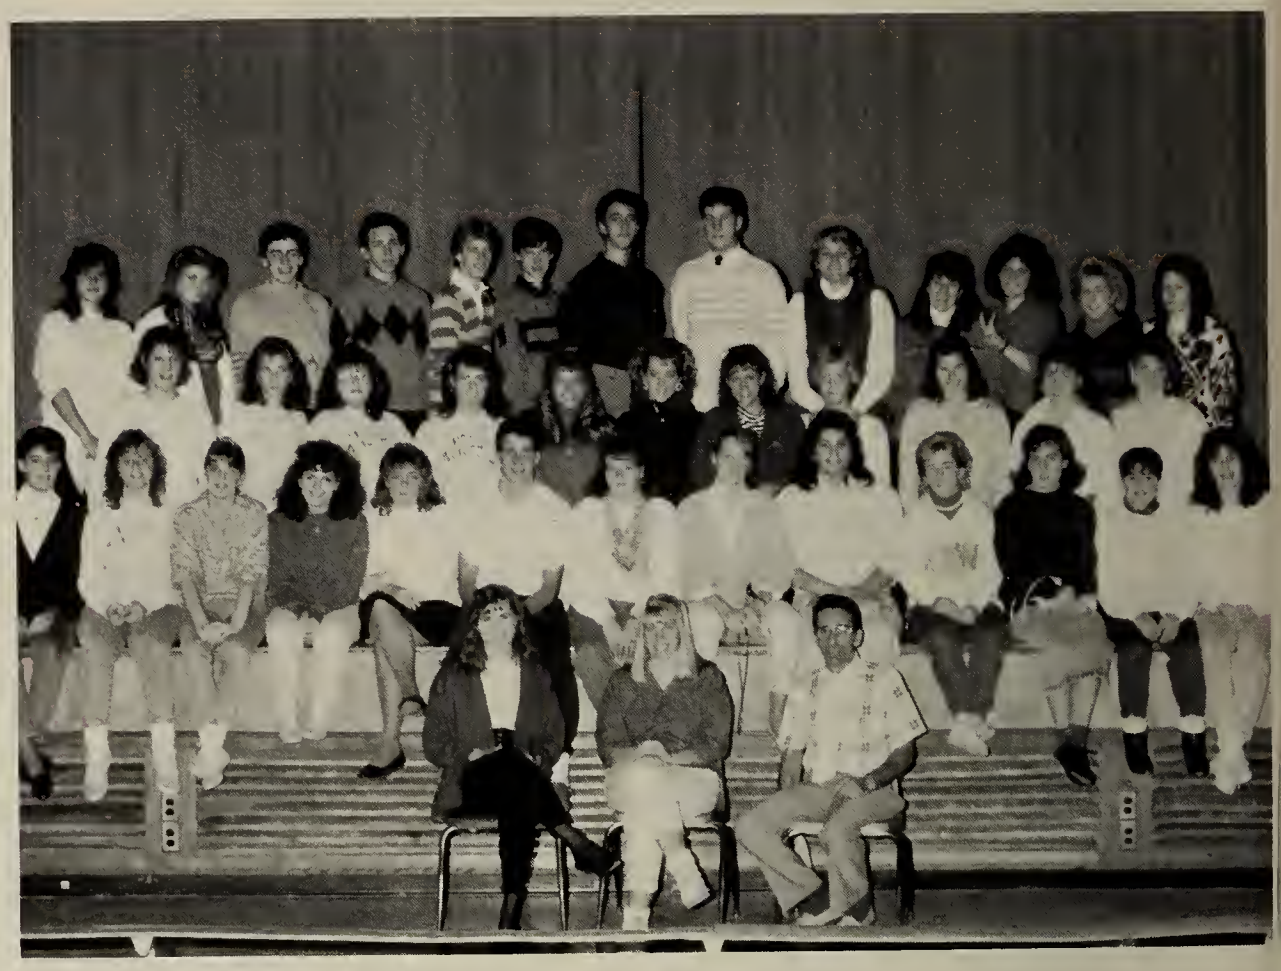
CHIEFTAIN

Chieftain is the King Philip's yearbook staff. This dedicated group is the one that makes this entire book possible. This year we had a large number of supporters who have all contributed in small ways to make the finished product — the class of 1989's memorable yearbook. Chieftain meets nearly every Tuesday evening for three hours throughout the school year to design pages, write interesting captions to enthrall you the readers, take candid photos, and, most of all, to meet the dreaded deadlines. It is a lot of work — all fun, of course — but it all seems to get done even when we did not think it would. The Chieftain staff hopes you are happy with this yearbook and we wish luck to the class of 1990 to have an equally successful yearbook.

Below are our Chieftain editors-in-chief, Barbara Bredvik and Elizabeth Bender.



Mrs. Helen Cooper, below, is the advisor of Chieftain. She is a very busy lady as she directs and controls everything that goes on in this yearbook. The yearbook staff depends on her for so much and we cannot thank her enough.

Above is editor-in-chief Liz Bender who wishes she could just fly out that door but she knows she must meet a deadline.

SACHEM H

Sachem is the King Philip literary magazine. The purpose of the club is to raise scholarship money to be awarded to a selected senior who plans to attend college following graduation. With Dr. Goldman as their advisor, the Sachem staff releases a monthly newsletter containing poetry, stories, and information concerning school functions.

WKPH

Wkph is the school radio club. It consists of two pairs of senior students who take turns reciting the morning announcements to the school body each day. Mr. Geib advises the program.

Sean Kelly, Jodie Mangor, Kelly Mannering, Derek Berry

ART CLUB

The Art Club, formed in 1987, is headed by art teacher Ms. Zeigler. The group uses their artistic talent to decorate school and community functions, such as dances as well as the annual Deca flea market.

DELTA

Delta is a unique one year course which meets one period per day. It is set up as an occupational elective course for academic juniors and seniors. The Delta program consists of two branches divided into three areas: applied engineering, applied graphics, and graphic design. The intent is to attract academically-motivated students and expose them to the technology available in the vocational areas. Mr. Riley is the organizer of this program.

VIDEO CLUB

The Video Club, formed in 1984, is going on strong again this year with the fourth season of its newsline program. This weekly show documents local news, community events, first-release movie and local restaurant reviews, as well as the ever topical Man on the Street. Killer Penguin Productions produces the show which can be seen at 7:30 P.M. on Thursdays on Wrentham cable 8. They are also available for weddings and birthday parties.

DRAMA CLUB

The K.P. Drama Club had a large group of talentd and enthusiastic actors this year. They are headed by advisors Mr. Ditillio and Mrs. Huckle. This fall they performed a clever satire of modern-day television, called "The Soap Opera," with a mimmick of daytime soap operas as well as funny commercial interruptions. The performance was a great success.

BAND

The King Philip Band is doing a splendid performance again this year. The highlight of the season came as the K.P. musicians marched their way to the Division II Crown at the New England Scholastic Band Association Competition in November. The band marched off with all the top awards in their division and the second highest score of 95.3 of all thirty bands in the competition. The K.P. Band deserves all the awards and praise it gets for they work extremely hard all of the time. There were voluntary weekly sessions over the summer, with the "band camp" two weeks before school commenced in September. With this effort and dedication, the band is sure to remain a success for years to come.

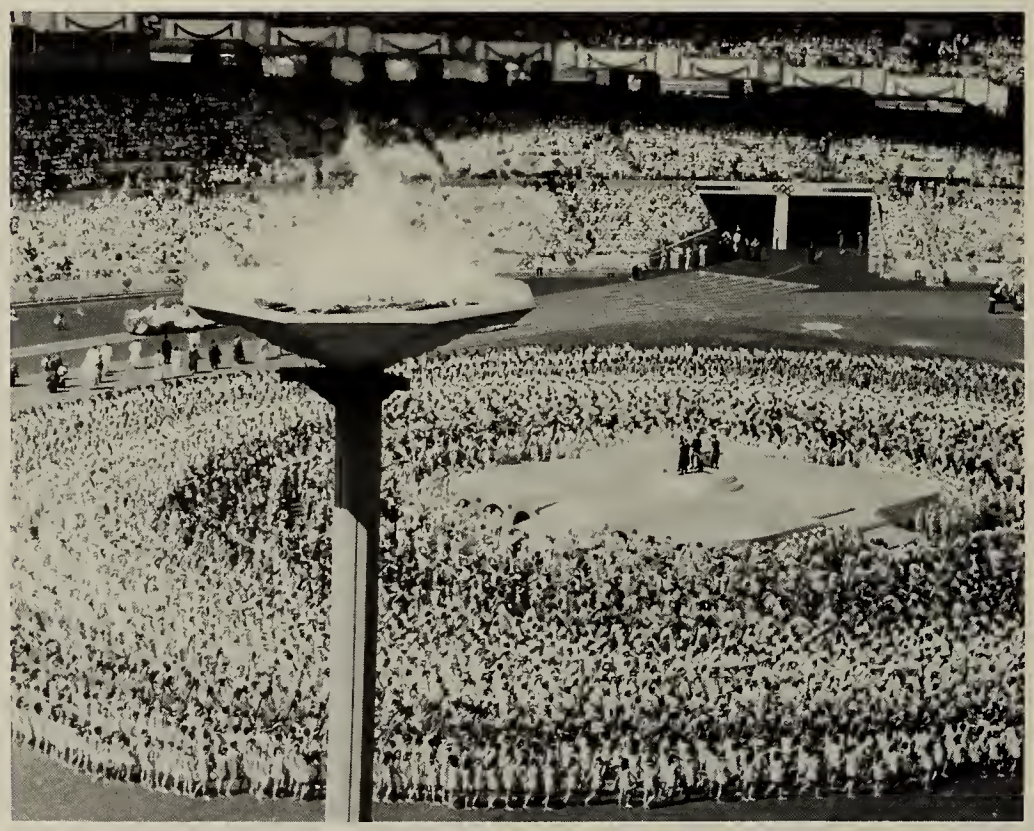
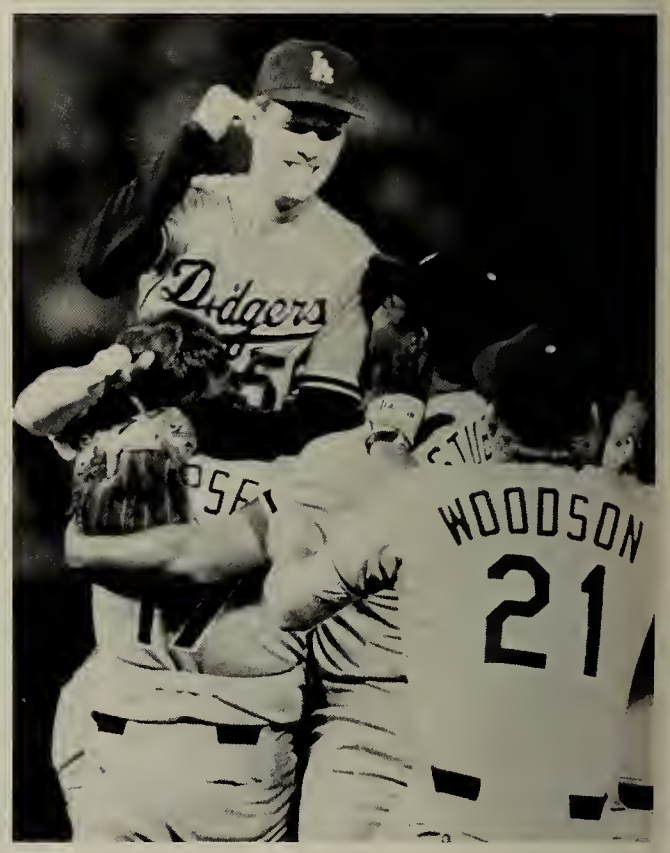
YEAR IN REVIEW

The stars of the 1988 summer Olympics, clockwise from top: diver Greg Louganis won 2 gold medals; track and field star Carl Lewis won 2 gold (including 1 after Canadian Ben Johnson was disqualified) and 1 silver; Florence Griffith Joyner won 3 gold and 1 silver; and swimmer Matt Biondi celebrated with 5 gold, 1 silver and 1 bronze.

Canadian Ben Johnson, left, looks over at arch rival Carl Lewis at the finish of the 100-meter race in the 1988 Summer Olympics at Seoul, South Korea. Johnson won the gold medal but was later disqualified after traces of an anabolic steroid was found in his system.



The 1988 summer Olympics in Seoul, South Korea opened with a dramatic and dazzling ceremony. A colorful, three-hour spectacle mixing ancient Korean rituals with space-age technology kicked off 16 days of athletic competition.



The World Series belonged to the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Dodgers captured their sixth World Series title in October with a 5-2 victory over the Oakland A's in the fifth game of the series.

The Democrats went to Atlanta in the summer of 1988, and decided on Michael Dukakis, the governor of Massachusetts, to be its candidate for President of the United States. He chose Lloyd Bentsen, a senator from Texas, as his running mate.

President Ronald Reagan and Soviet Leader Mikhail S. Gorbachev worked for several years to bring the two countries together. After a treaty was signed to eliminate certain nuclear weapons, 1988 was the year the efforts of these two leaders went into effect.

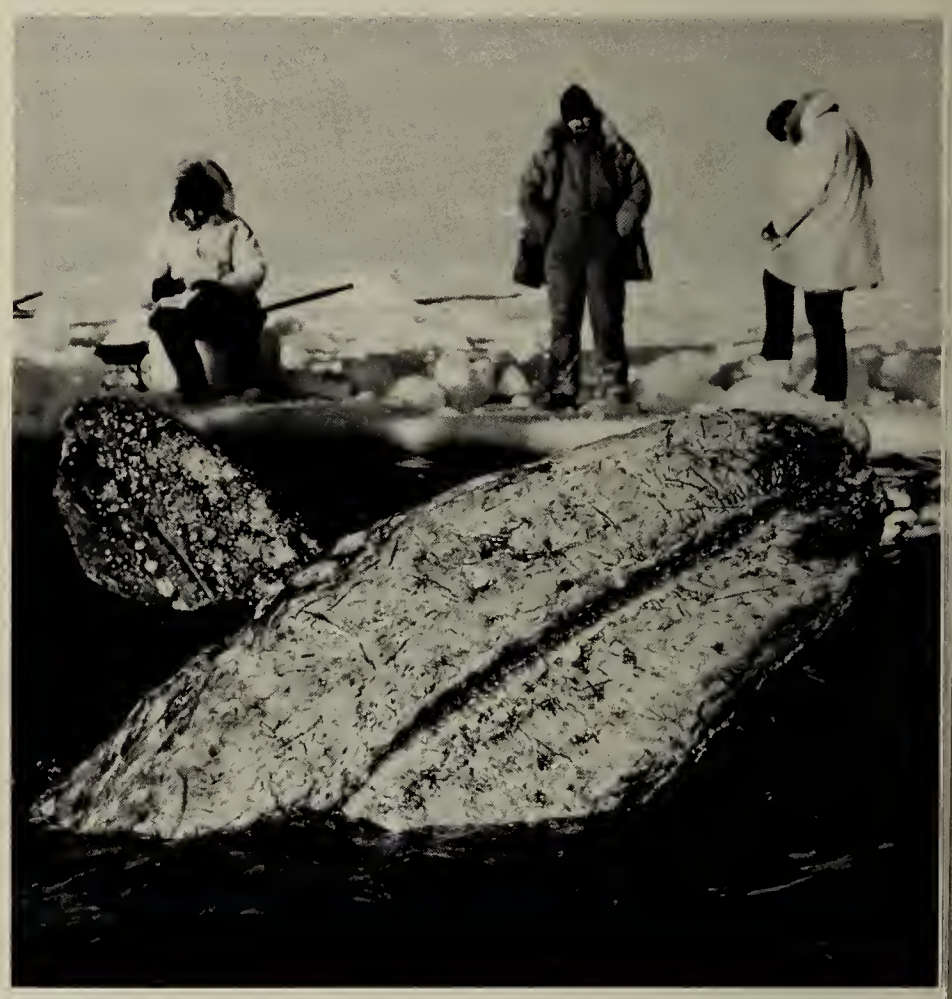
Vice President George Bush, after serving for eight years in the Ronald Reagan administration, got the expected nod at the Republican National Convention in New Orleans in the summer of 1988. His choice for running mate was unexpected — Sen. Dan Quayle of Indiana. The public opinion polls showed that the inexperienced 41 year-old senator was not a popular choice.

Amid tears and grief, thousands of people who had died of AIDS were memorialized in October in ceremonies centered on a huge quilt that was made from friends and family members of the victims. Each of the panels measured three feet by six teet and all 50 states and a dozen foreign countries were represented in the 375,000 square foot quilt.

The summer of 1988 was hit with the worst drought in many years. Throughout the Midwest, farmers watched helplessly as their crops went dry.

Hurricane Gilbert rose out of the Carribean like a giant wind storm in late September. By the time it lost its hurricane status over northeastern Mexico, it had killed more than 300 people, left hundreds of thousands homeless and caused billions of dollars in damage to the Carribean, Central America, Mexico and the United States.

Forest fires spread throughout the western part of the country in the summer of 1988, destroying millions of acres of national parkland. The most heavily damaged was Yellowstone National Park.



It became an international effort of good will. Russians and American rescuers cut through the ice in Alaska to save two California gray whales. News media from around the world converged on the tiny village of Barrow, Alaska, to cover the successful rescue.

Gretchen Elizabeth Carlson erupted in tears as her name was announced as Miss America 1989. The 22 year-old Miss Minnesota, who planned to be a Harvard-trained lawyer, became the first classical violinist to win the Miss America crown.

It was one of the biggest marriages of the year. Heavyweight boxer Mike Tyson married actress Robin Givens. But the stormy marriage of the 22 year-old rich boxer and the 23 year-old actress lasted less than a year. She filed for divorce. But after being accused of marrying "Iron Mike" for his money, Ms. Givens said she wouldn't take a dime.

The shuttle discovery blasted into orbit in September, the first space flight since the shuttle Challenger mission ended tragically 73 seconds after lift off on January 28, 1986. The discovery ended in its successful four days, 1.6 million miles mission with a triumphant landing at Edwards Air Force Base in California.

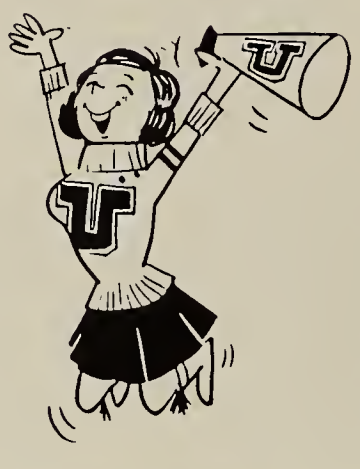
"I Love New York"

Let's Hear It!!

The Annual Class Competition, held on February 28, 1989, was the "best we've had in four years." Tremendous spirit overflowed the gymnasium as the classes battled it out in various events. Contests included an Obstacle course, Volleyball, the Limbo (How low can you go?), the Sack race, the Sneaker race, the Balloon Pop, the Three-legged race, the Orange pass, the Egg toss, and the grand finale, the Tug-of-War!

The seniors, with a tough competitive edge, took the lead early in the evening, and continued with the victory. The Juniors were a tough second, followed by the Sophomores, and finally, the Freshmen. (Could age have something to do with this?). All classes showed a great deal of skill and spirit, and this successful night was one of the most fun and exciting all year!



The sophomores proudly cheer

"Uh-oh. I have an itch!" H. Rollins

The Vocational section of KP is made up of many industrial trades. The students learn the fundamentals in the classroom and then apply them through hands-on experience in the shop. The following is a brief rundown of the different trades offered at KP: Automotive provides the student with a working knowledge of all phases of automotive repair and maintenance; Carpentry is designed to develop in the student the ability to do residential construction and millwork; Drafting exposes the students to the graphic language of industry and explores computer-aided drafting (CAD); Electrical is a course designed to instruct in the knowledge of electrical theory, how electricity works, how it is generated, controlled, distributed, and put to use; Culinary Arts is considered to be the third largest industry in the United States. The food service industry requires a broad spectrum of knowledge and skills. Here you acquire the basic skills necessary for employment and advancement in this rewarding industry; Machine Shop students learn the business of making practical tools using lathes and milling machines as well as other tools found in modern machine shops; Tech Drawing teaches the student how to make a precise drawing and it also gives the student an appreciation for the design process; Sheet Metal emphasizes the basic skills and technical knowledge needed in the various areas of metal fabrication; Business involves the students in typing, accounting, stenography, record keeping and word processing; Distributive Education provides the students with training in marketing, retailing, and management. The students also run and organize the KP Restaurant and the KP Mini Mall.

Physical Education challenges the students athletic ability. The students participate in different individual and team activities. Physical Education includes a health program which teaches the students about CPR, drugs, alcohol and peer pressure problems. Physical Education also includes an internship program which allows juniors and seniors to help the students and learn more about the teaching aspect of physical education.

The Media Center offers students at K.P. a wide variety of resource materials, novels, magazines, newspapers, and paperbacks. The students also have access to state of the art equipment. The library can either be a research or leisure experience.

HISTORY The Students can travel back in time to the day of the cavemen and diligently work their way up to the events of the present day. Along the rocky road they can experience the magnificence of Louis XIV, the forming of the Constitution, the mystifying world of Freud, and the downfall of Camelot.

How can one really put the concept of Art into words. It is something that flows from one's right brain. The students formulate ideas in their heads and then reproduce them onto the canvas with the teacher looking over their shoulder, scrutinizing every stroke of the brush.

The students in Mathematics can learn the fundamentals from Algebra I all the way to Calculus. Then, in between, there is Geometry, Algebra 2, Trigonometry, Analytical Geometry, and Precalculus.

The students also take a great interest in Computers. From now on, the students are required to take at least one year of computers in order to graduate, but many of them decide to exceed that.

In the Science section, the students can take Biology. Chemistry, Physics, Anatomy, and Environmental. The students take in hands-on experience through their labs in the desired class, and lab practicals are used to test their skill.

The students learn the fundamentals of written English. They learn to use different forms of grammar and they widen their vocabulary consistently over the four years. Then American and English literature are added later on to form well balanced classes.

The students have a choice of taking either French, Spanish, Latin, or German as a foreign language. The teachers teach the students how to read, write, and speak in their chosen language. Those students that stick with it can become fluent in whichever language they desire.

Project Share is a vocational program which services learning disabled students through the BICO collaborative. All Collaborative programs are extensions of public school services.

Whereas mainstreaming becomes a goal for most students, small groups or individual instruction is provided within resource classrooms and resource shop areas to prepare for successful mainstreaming.

The goals of the program are to provide learning disabled adolescents with skills and knowledge necessary to obtain a high school diploma as well as a marketable vocational skill and a vocational certificate.

Editor's Note

A finished page in this book looks rather simple, doesn't it? However, most people do not know the endless hours, Countless revisions, and downright frustrations that it takes to transform a blank sheet of paper into a finished page. It all starts with dedication and imagination. An idea is slowly made into a "layout" with pictures, "copy", artwork, and captions.

We are very grateful to the handful of students that were dedicated enough to work weekends, after school, over vacations, and late nights. We also want to thank everyone who faithfully worked until the very end to complete their sections, and the students who helped to put together those pages that were abandoned by those who were originally responsible for doing them.

A special thanks goes to Kim and Laura for their enduring faithfulness (you guys are lifesavers!); Debe for always coming through, even with our nagging; Sandra for her cookies, smiles, and willingness to accept a huge responsibility at the last minute; Kevin and Amy for their true dedication, responsibility, and loud laughs; Derek for his good tunes, and especially for finishing on TIME! (Way to be!). Of course we can't forget to thank Vance Pirone for coming through with his great artwork (after all the kicks in the behind!), and Torgun Lovely for those awesome pictures . . . after all, that's what makes a yearbook!

Above all, we would like to thank Mrs. Cooper for the pizza, sodas, advice, encouragement, and especially, friendship. We could never have done it without you! Mr. Antonetti, you were great, but PLEASE STOP SMOKING! (cough, cough).

Finally, thanks to Mr. Riley and Mr. Sumner for their computer expertise, Arnie Lohman for his unending "surprises"' ("No, that's not free . . ."), Joe Geoffroy for coming through with pictures at the last minute, and a special, special thanks to Terry Poovey in Winston-Salem, North Carolina for going to all the trouble that he didn't have to.

THANKS FOR CARING, AND WE LOVE YOU, CHIEFTAIN STAFF!

Sincerely,
Barbara Bredvik
